Giants Now Have Big Lead in Occidentals Celebrate Return Travers Beats Travis Two Up and Behr Defeats Herreshoff One Up.

The Occidental baseball team celebrated be recorded during the day. The men played in par figures for the first five holes and every shot was made with clock-like regularity. There was no hesi-tation by either man when his turn to play came around and at the end of the irst half of the match Travis had the champion one down on the eighteenth

The afternoon play was for the greater part in favor of Travis, but when the young champion reached the thirty-second hole and found himself two down, he braced up and to the end of the match he played all the golf of which he is capable. He simply mowed down the veteran's lead, taking the last four holes in grand golf and finishing up with 3 to 6 on the home green, the veteran's ball having rolled into a sand trap and the strokes

being approximated
The other pair, Behr and Herreshoff, had a close contest all the way, which eventually had to be decided on an extra hole. Behr winning the additional hole by 3 to 4 and the match by one up. Summary Jerome D. Travis, Montclair, N. J., beat Walter Travis, Garden City, 2 up; Max H. Behr, Morris Country, N. J., beat Fred Herreshoff, Manchester, Vt., 1 up (37)
